From Mr. John H. Harjes, of Paris, presenting two large bronze plaques, and on motion the following minute was unanimously adopted:

Mr. John H. Harjes, with great and generous kindness, has presented to the Philosophical Society two bas reliefs commemorative of historic incidents in the life of Benjamin Franklin. One represents his reception by the King of France, the other commemorates the signing of the Treaty of Paris. Both are originals, of which copies are upon the pediment of the statue of Franklin recently presented by Mr. Harjes to the City of Paris.

In accepting these beautiful examples of a difficult art, this Society returns its heartiest thanks to Mr. Harjes for his thoughtful generosity, and assures him of its thorough appreciation of the manner in which he has enriched France and America with appropriate gifts. Such acts of liberal patriotism promote mutual sympathy and amity among nations.

The American Philosophical Society will prize these gifts as enduring ornaments and choice possessions, and upon its walls they shall forever tell their story of the beneficent labors and unending fame of its illustrious founder.
